Martin Orders Militia to the Scene of Trouble.

Western Dispatches—Virginia Republicans Deny Mahone for a Place in Gen. Harrison's Cabinet—Heavy Force-closure Decried.

Telegraph to The Times.

LOUIS, Jan. 12.—[By the Associated Press.] A special from Wichita, Kan., on account of a terrible affair at Cimarron, Kan., in which two or three persons were killed and several wounded. There has for years past been a serious feud between the towns of Cimarron

The county offices, excepting of clerk and surveyor, have been at work for nearly a year. At the recent in Mr. Watson, an Ingalls man, was Clerk, but the commissioners refused to canvass the vote until the Supreme Court issued an order to the clerk to do so. This morning several Deputy sheriffs went to Cimarron to place Watson, clerk-elect, in office and remove the records to Ingalls, when they were met by a mob of from 200 to 300 Cimarron sympathizers. The shots were returned with a vengeance, and when the firing ceased it was found that J. N. English and J. Bliss, two prominent citizens of Cimarron, were killed, and quite a number wounded. George W. Boldt, a deputy sheriff, was in the leg, and Lemuel Brecks and C. J. Seiler, two other deputies, received wounds in the arms and head. The Iron people became infuriated over the killing of their two leading citizens, and fired in a body upon the brick building of Watson and the wounded deputies, and taken refuge.

Latest accounts the firing was going on for intervals between the besieged and the Irons, the latter firing from the windows of other places for shelter. If Watson and the deputies fall into the hands of the Iron people they will all be hung, and their safety is in the timely arrival of assistance.

Mr. Martin has telegraphed Gen. Meyer to this city, directing him to send a company of militia to Cimarron to restore order, keep the peace and to go himself, and if finds one company insufficient, to order another. Gen. Meyer immediately notified Companies A, H and G, of the Second Kansas Cavalry, Captain Guard, to be for duty, and, with Adj. Davis, went forward, where he will be met by Com. F. and proceed to Cimarron on ice.

BOOMING MAHONE.

Virginia Urged for a Place in the Cabinet.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 12.—[By the Associated Press.] This was Virginia day with President-elect, his principal visitors a large delegation of prominent Republicans from the 10 Congressional districts of Virginia, who came here to the appointment of Gen. William Mahone to a place in the Cabinet. They came as a delegation appointed by the Publican Committee of Virginia at its meeting, December 15th, to convey to President-elect certain resolutions adopted at that meeting in the interest of appointment of Gen. Mahone. They brought a memorial signed by the publican members-elect of the Virginia House of Delegates to the same effect, and received the delegation in the back parlor.

At his address to the President-elect Craig they asked the appointment of Gen. Mahone to the Cabinet because that was the most unanimous decision of the party in Virginia. He made a strong argument to the contrary, and the Southern members of the Cabinet Virginia should get it, and in that event Mahone should be recognized. He said that all efforts to break the South had failed, and that the Republican organization in Virginia was abandoned till in 1879 Mahone led the movement whereby over 50,000 ex-Confederates were taken into the ranks of the United band of Republicans. As to the tion against Gen. Mahone in Virginia, practically amounted to nothing. Nevertheless, other persons have earnestly been working for Mahone. Gen. Harrison was an intuitive listener, and after cordially welcoming the visitors and expressing pleasure in meeting them, he briefly stated, in substance, that the matter presented should receive his careful consideration. The Virgians expressed themselves as greatly pleased with their visit, and especially their cordial reception by Gen. Harrison. They then departed for home this evening.

The exhibition, the committee say, is still incomplete. Much more space has been applied for than can possibly be allotted to American exhibitors.

Carl Schurz on Politics.
New York, Jan. 12.—At the dinner of the Commonwealth Club tonight, Hon. Carl Schurz said that the politics of this country in a deplorably corrupt condition and information is a more important question at present than either free trade or protection. "Someone please say this sort of thing cannot be remedied; yet the condition of English politics was much the same not many years ago," he said.

"Today England is the cleanest nation, politically speaking, on the face of the earth."

Accidentally Killed.
HUBON, Jan. 12.—A Portuguese sheep man was accidentally killed last night by his brother near the Dudley postoffice, in Tazewell county, while examining a pistol. The particulars of the parties are not known. He was the owner of several thousand sheep, and is supposed to have a family in Hayward. The body was taken to Emmore for an inquest.

TIE AND TRACK.

THE SALT LAKE AND UTAH ROAD STILL THE CHIEF TOPIC.

Railroad Wreckers Now Concede That the New Line Will Undoubtedly Be Built—Big Excavations Coming—The Mexican Railroad System Described.

The Associated Press dispatch in the Times of yesterday regarding the letting of the contract to build the Salt Lake, Utah and Los Angeles road from the Salt Lake end created great excitement among railroad men in the city yesterday. Up to yesterday there were but few railroad men in Los Angeles who took any stock in the scheme, but they have changed their minds now, and seem to be confident that the road will be in running order within two years.

Their doubts grew out of the fact that the Union Pacific Company was involved that it will be impossible for them to build any new roads, but they have come to the conclusion that prominent Boston stockholders in the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and the Union Pacific are the real backers of the scheme, and if such be the case there is no doubt about the success of the great project.

During the campaign and just before Christmas the excursion business fell off considerably, but it is beginning to pick up, and agents are firmly convinced now that the big steamboat race the other day will be the means of driving a great many people out here within the next few weeks.

Day after tomorrow a Warner excursion composed of 300 people will arrive here. They are closely followed by a Phillips party of a like number.

During the latter part of the week a Walters party composed of 500 people will arrive.

A majority of these people are coming to stay, and the beauty of it is they are people of means, who will spend their money in helping to build the country.

It is almost a foregone conclusion that Southern California is soon to become a great railroad center, and that the barbers of this section will make use of the new line as a means of transportation.

If the Central Pacific road be abandoned by the Southern Pacific company, as is now believed, the latter will soon, the Southern Pacific Company will branch out in all directions and will make things hum in Southern California. They are already building roads all over Mexico, and it is said that their general headquarters for both Mexico and the coast north of San Francisco will be moved from San Francisco to either Los Angeles or San Diego.

If they choose either city it will be equally advantageous to Southern California. A Union Pacific man who has just returned from a tour of inspection in Mexico gave the Chronicle the following information last Thursday:

"A trip into Mexico will be found interesting by Americans. In the past five or six years the country has been pierced in a number of directions by new railroads, so that traveling in that ancient land is now rapid and convenient."

These remarks were made to a reporter last night in the Palace Hotel by S. W. Eccles, the new freight representative of the Union Pacific road on this coast. For two years past Mr. Eccles has represented the Southern Pacific Company in the City of Mexico.

"Last year," said he, "500 miles of railroad were built in Mexico. The Mexican International built 400 miles of track. This is the road owned by Stanford and Huntington, and they constructed it without any Government bonus, being the first to do so."

"On this road lies the first coal mine ever operated in Mexico. The coal is not being shipped all over the country, and the effect has been to reduce the price of coal in the City of Mexico from $22 per ton to $15."

"The Mexican International has now 1,000 miles of track, making a new line direct from Laredo, Tex., to the City of Mexico. The road now has about 1,200 miles of narrow-gauge track, and it was built under the Palmer-Sullivan concession. English capital controls it. The Mexican Central has just completed the line from Mexico City to Tlaxcala, a city of 200,000 inhabitants."

"This company has 140 miles of track, reaching south from Mexico City to the Gulf of Mexico, and is engaged in building a branch line 250 miles long from Aguas Calientes to Tampico on the Gulf of Mexico. This will create a new route into the country from the Gulf. It is a good harbor at Tampico. This road was built by Boston capitalists, but its bonds are now held in England."

"The road that connects the seacoast with the interior is the Mexican Railway, which runs from Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico, a distance of 260 miles. It is soon to have an opposition line, the Central American Company now being engaged in building a narrow-gauge line between the same points. When completed, the latter company will have about 400 miles of road. The lines of these companies are controlled by Englishmen."

"As yet there is no road running west across the country to the Pacific Coast, but several lines have been projected."

"The trade of Mexico with the United States is small compared with the European trade. As a consequence, the roads running north to points in this country have not much through traffic. By the way of Vera Cruz freight shipments are heavy. This was particularly true last year, when the excess of import duties over those for the year before amounted to $10,000,000. Some of the imports, however, from Liverpool, Hamburg and Antwerp are sent via New Orleans and then shipped in bond to Mexico by the way of Eagle Pass, Tex."

"With the exception of the iron and agricultural machinery, the iron used in the country comes from Europe. The former comes from the United States. Of late, considerable cotton has been shipped from Texas into Mexico, where there are a number of fine cotton manufacturing establishments, representing both English and domestic capital."

Mr. Eccles said that the country seemed to be prosperous and contented under the government of President Diaz. He was a man, who came from the State of New York, and his countrymen and his administration were recognized as being able and firm. No revolutionary talk was permitted by him anywhere. In the latter part of the year, fine address, and when in uniform looked much like Gen. Hancock. Mr. Eccles spoke of an enjoyable trip to Chapultepec, the beautiful summer residence of President Diaz.

It was generally understood in the City of Mexico that President Diaz desired to serve four years more in the Presidency after the expiration of his present term in 1892, and then to go to Europe to live.

American gold was selling at a premium of 25 per cent. in that country today. Much of its ore was being sent to Denver, Omaha, Pueblo and St. Louis. There was a movement on foot, however, to send a large quantity of ore shipments into the United States. In the Northern States of the republic adjacent to this country there were mines yielding great results. Mr. Eccles believed that these States should ever be annexed to this country there would be a rush of people into them, causing one of the greatest mining enterprises ever known. He visited one mine that, according to the church records, had been worked for 250 years, and had produced $25,000,000 in gold.

The Mexicans were beginning to travel considerable on the railroads, and the progressive merchants in the country predicted that the next ten years would witness great changes in the methods of doing business on account of this travel.

BURGLARIES.
Some time yesterday morning between the hours of 11 and 5 o'clock, the safe in the saloon of H. Cleary, on North Main street opposite the Pico House, was broken open, and a pistol, some valuable papers and a large sum of money stolen. It was a very good job and from the manner in which it was done the detectives are of the opinion that it was the work of professional safe burglars. No powder, dynamite or other explosive was used, but a hole was drilled through the door over the cash register, and a combination lock, which was a fine piece of work, was inserted, and a sharp blow with a mallet smashed the casing, which caused the numbers to fall, and all the thieves went in and took what they pleased and got out. This was the first time that the safe has been broken open in this city.

THE NEW CHARTER.
Mayor Bryson is Strongly in Favor of It.
There was considerable talk on the streets yesterday about the underground fight which is being made on the charter, and mention of which was made in THE TIMES yesterday morning. Mayor Bryson is considerably annoyed by the street talk connecting him with the matter, and said to a Times reporter yesterday that he wanted it distinctly understood that he was in favor of the charter first, last and all the time, and would use his best endeavors to secure its passage. In regard to the remarks he had made about being afraid the charter would not pass, it was caused from hearing persons, say the same thing, and it was not until he had heard it so often that he was defeated. When he had consented to run for Mayor he did not expect to hold the office, if he should be elected, more than three months at first, but he hoped to do so to conduct the affairs of the city that when the election was held under the new charter, he could be re-elected. If he was not re-elected, he would have to leave his position, and there has been no deviation from it. There had also been some talk about his contributing to pay the expenses of persons to go to San Francisco and Sacramento to work against the charter. All such stories were absolutely false, and without foundation in fact, and he would give $10,000 to any one who could show that such was the case. He could be depended on to do all in his power to secure the passage of the charter, which was an absolute necessity for the city.

Several leading citizens, irrespective of party, were agitating the question of holding a mass meeting as early as possible, and sending a strong committee of twenty-five to Sacramento to lay the case before the Legislative Judiciary Committee, and fully explain the situation as it stands.

INSURE.
Sheriff Aguirre's Opinion of the Jail.
The new Sheriff, Martin Aguirre, appeared before the Board of Supervisors yesterday and informed it that the County Jail is in such a condition that it will be very easy for the prisoners to make their escape. He said that the walls of the jail are not protected from the public, and the windows are so located that every man in the jail could be armed with pistols and knives in a few minutes, and then it would be but short work to overcome the jailor and his handful of assistants and walk out of the jail.

When the yard-wall is completed it will be a little better, but even then the windows should be so constructed that outsiders cannot communicate with the prisoners. The matter was taken under advisement by the Supervisors, and will probably be acted upon at their next meeting.

INQUEST.
On the Victim of Thursday's Runaway.
Coroner Meredith last night held an inquest on the remains of Stevens, the man who died from the effects of injuries received by a runaway team Thursday afternoon. Stevens' trunk was opened by Mr. Meredith, but nothing of value was found. An Old Fellow's meal and several letters were in the trunk, together with other papers. From these it appears that the man's name is Henry C. Stevens, and that he is either from White River Junction, Vt., or Brackton, Mass. A marriage certificate was also found, showing that he had been married in 1871 at West Lebanon, N. H., to Mrs. C. L. Hickson. The jury returned a verdict that death was caused from injuries received, as above stated, by a runaway team. A telegram was sent by Coroner to West Lebanon yesterday afternoon making inquiries about the deceased, and the body will be held until an answer is received.

CIGARETTE SMOKING.
California Wins the Championship Easily.
California is entitled to wear the belt for cigarette smoking. From a list of prizes recently offered by a New York firm of cigarette smokers, California has won the championship. The prizes consisted of boxes (one to each box) and returned, a Sacramento man took the first, San Francisco the second, Los Angeles the third. The Los Angeles man got his prize ($250) on the collection of 40,000 coupons. It is notable that of these prizes offered in New York, California has won the largest number, over the country, California takes about 85 per cent. of the gross award. This is probably one preeminence of which California has no right to feel proud.

Koster's Bakery is Again Kerkum-mixed.
Koster's elegant restaurant and bakery is again in the trawl of bankruptcy. As the result of a suit filed last Thursday by Mayer, the butcher, on a claim for $269.95, the place is now in the hands of a Sheriff's keeper. Another attachment for $1,200, secured a short time ago, was satisfied. Koster went into partial insolvency several months ago, but a compromise was secured with the creditors, by which the place was relieved of its embarrassment and continued.

Koster's financial tumble dates back to the memorable Gladstone fiasco, in which he was considerably involved, like several other victims of the famous Smooty No. 1.

Charity Concert.
A grand concert for the benefit of the Orphan's Home will be given at Turner Hall next Friday evening, in which the best musical talent of the city will take part. It will be under the direction of Prof. J. H. Brenner, and the other participants are Mrs. Marie Perry-Davis, Sig. Modini, Prof. Hugo Teupner (solo cornetist, late of Europe), and Messrs. Blasing, Brunner, Hamilton, Meyer, Wason, Shawhan, Heyes, Booth, Williams, Sullivan, Ragland and Welsinger. Miss Mona Laux will officiate as accompanist.

Orphan's Home.
Little Herman Huff, the youngster who has run away from home several times, and whose sister has figured in police circles frequently, was again picked up on the street by Officer Dugan last night about 11 o'clock and brought to the police station, where he was taken care of for the night. Something will probably be done for the boy to get him out of his present surroundings.

FIRE COMMISSION.

A CHANGE IN THE TIME OF HOLDING MEETINGS.

An Insecure Building Cannot Be Interfered with Because It Is Outside the Fire Limits—No Law for a Building Inspector.

The Board of Fire Commissioners met at the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon, with Mayor Bryson, Mr. Kuhns and Mr. Hanley in attendance. Chief Moriarty and Assistant Miles were also present.

The usual weekly bills were audited, approved and ordered paid.

Mr. Hanley suggested that the day of meeting be changed from Saturday to Thursday, after discussion, on motion of Mr. Hanley, the day was changed to 10 o'clock Wednesday. The change was made so that the bills could be got before the Finance Committee of the Council the same week they were presented.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read, after which a communication was read, saying that the new hose cart would arrive at the end of the month.

Chief Moriarty reported that he had seen the water company about putting in the hydrants and they had promised to attend to the matter.

In the matter of the Bryant hydrant the Chief asked for further time, as it would cost $75 to take the hydrant to the place where it is to be put, and the building being improperly erected on Upper Main street, the Chief reported that he had made an investigation, but could do nothing in the matter, as it was outside the fire limits.

The matter of a building inspector was again brought up, but it was stated that it would do no good, as the law did not cover the case.

Chief Moriarty reported that he had suspended Engineer Tilden of the Boyle Heights engine for getting drunk and whipping his wife and also his stepson, Fireman Bassett, because he "kicked" his father. The action of the Chief was sustained by the board, and the engine was in place of Tilden as engineer for the time being.

The cases of Wyatt and Trowbridge, the engine and fireman of engine No. 3, suspended for racing, was taken up, and after discussion, Wyatt was given another trial, from and on the salary of his clerk. The company is to be re-elected on Monday or Tuesday.

A numerous signed petition was presented, asking for the removal of the engine and fireman of engine No. 3, suspended for racing, and a milder form of punishment be inflicted.

The Chief stated that Trowbridge had once before been suspended, and if he was not re-elected, he would have to leave his position, and there has been no deviation from it. There had also been some talk about his contributing to pay the expenses of persons to go to San Francisco and Sacramento to work against the charter. All such stories were absolutely false, and without foundation in fact, and he would give $10,000 to any one who could show that such was the case. LYDIA THOMPSON.

The Actress Prostrated with a Serious Illness.

Lydia Thompson was taken seriously sick with inflammation of the stomach, and Dr. E. M. Griffith and another physician were called in. After a careful diagnosis the medical attendants informed Manager Hutchinson that she was dangerously sick.

She was booked to take the leading character in Columbus at the Grand last night, but of course she could not appear, and Miss Marie Williams read the part. The young lady had never read the lines before, but she did exceedingly well and will in the course of a few years make a very acceptable "Columbus."

At midnight Miss Thompson's pulse ranged from 120 to 130, and she appeared to be growing worse. The lady is 57 years of age and it is more than probable that she will leave her room in the Westminster Hotel.

Today her company will leave for San Diego and will play the Southern circuit and then go to San Francisco.

GAMBLING.
Persistent Efforts to Reopen the Tan Games.
The gamblers still continue to run, and the work of fitting up other rooms continues. The Chinese tan players are also making all their preparations to reopen on Friday scale. Two or three games started on Friday afternoon, but soon shut down, and yesterday four more opened, but they did not continue long. It was also stated that eight more places were to open last night, but it was said that from some cause they did not do so. The games which are in operation are those belonging to the old Ah-Mow-Him combine. The rival company, from some cause, say that they either do not or do not want gambling allowed, and keep a close watch on the others. Yesterday morning they notified Chief Conney, and he said he would send down an officer to look after the matter, but no arrests were made. The Chinese then hired a couple of Lawson's men, and sent them down to look after the doers of the gambling-house, but they did not succeed in stopping them. Further developments are awaited with interest.

SUPERVISORS.
Providing for the Sale of Bonds to Continue Work.

J. C. Sherer's petition referring to over-assessment was referred to the Assessor for correction.

W. H. Savage was appointed Deputy District Attorney at San Pedro at a monthly salary of $50.

After some further unimportant business in regard to furnishing the engine-houses, and other minor matters, the board adjourned.

SOCIAL MATTERS.
Doings in the Social World During Last Week.
News in social circles last week was rather quiet. No event of any importance took place, and, with the exception of a few private parties and dinners, the week may be voted a blank.

Among the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Salisbury of Pearl street, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hoal, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rhodes of Figueroa street, Mr. and Mrs. Provost of Flower street and others.

Modjeska begins a "farewell tour," not of the usual farewell kind, but honestly her good-bye to the stage.

BOLD ROBBERY.
Last night a tough named Hugh Hill, who has been in jail once or twice for robbery and vagrancy, knocked a white man down in front of Braun's saloon, on New High and Market streets, and took his pocket-book, containing $15. Braun caught the negro and made him return the pocket-book, which was found to contain 70 cents, and when Braun was about to turn Hill over to the officers he broke and ran. Constable Fred Smith and Officer Smith gave chase, and Smith caught him at the corner of Broadway and New High, where a lively race. Hill was locked up, charged with robbery, and will probably go to the penitentiary.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED.

The most agonizing, humiliating, itching, scaly, and burning skin diseases are cured by the CUTICURA Remedies, when physicians and all other remedies fail.

I have been afflicted since last March with a skin disease, most excruciating. Eczema. My face was covered with scabs and sores, and the itching and burning were almost unbearable. Seeing your CUTICURA Remedies so highly recommended, concluded to give them a trial, using the CUTICURA internally for four months. I call myself cured, in gratitude for which I make this public statement.

My skin is now clear and healthy. I feel better than I have for years. My hair, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the CUTICURA Remedies.

ECZEMA Three Years Cured.
CUTICURA REMEDIES are the greatest medicine on earth. Had the worst case of Salt Rheum in this country. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe CUTICURA has saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the CUTICURA Remedies.

ECZEMA on Baby Cured.
My baby has been troubled with eczema on his face, neck, head, ears and entire body. He was one of those who were obliged to be taken to a hospital to prevent his scratching. I have spent hundreds on remedies, but could find no cure until I obtained the CUTICURA Remedies, which effected a speedy and permanent cure.

ECZEMA on Hands Cured.

Speculation.—"A great many people think that real estate will drop out of sight in this city during the next few months. In this they are mistaken. The prices of real estate in Los Angeles will keep up as far as the general market is concerned. During the spring and summer speculators who have good eyes in their heads and sound judgment will be able to pick up a few good snags in the way of cheap places, but the market will remain stiff, but nothing but wildcat lands will go out of sight. Speculators and fakirs and their schemes will go the way of the wind, and it will be a good thing for the country. These fellows have done Southern California a great deal of damage, and I am glad to see that their last day has come."

Good Republican.—"In the past the politicians of the north have paid but little attention to us fellows except before an election. As soon as the election was over they paid no attention to us, and seemed to look down on us. A change has come over them, however, since the last election, and now they are doing a thing that was never before heard of. In years gone by a fellow who never thought of sending a petition down here for signature, but now petitioners are flocking down here, and prominent men are asked to sign them. I tell you Los Angeles has taken a mighty jump forward, from a political standpoint, in a few weeks past, and the boys of the north will not dare ignore us in the future."

Coroner Meredith.—"The Texas truck the rail square on the head, the other day when it was stated that this city is in need of a receiving hospital. Yes, sir, I have held inquests on persons who have been killed by the authorities of this city, and it has been possible for me to instruct the jury to bring in a verdict charging every member of the Council I would have been so. What do I mean by saying that the authorities have committed murder? I mean simply this: I have held inquests on bodies when I knew that the deceased might have been saved had there been a well-managed receiving hospital where the wounded person could have been taken immediately after the accident. When you drag a wounded man down to the police station and throw him into the drunk's cell, where there are no doctors, and where you cannot expect him to recover, and the City Council is responsible for this state of affairs, it would only cost $20 or $30 a month for a couple of rooms, and a few professional nurses, who could be used to much better advantage than walking a beat. It makes me blue for our civilization when I think that a city like Los Angeles should not have a receiving hospital."

PUBLIC WORKS.

Recommendations Formulated Yesterday.

The Board of Public Works at its regular session yesterday transacted the following business:

The board having ordered the Superintendent of Streets to remove the Hendricks ice fountain from the corner of First and Main streets, that official reported that to do so would be contrary to the orders of the Council, and that the fountain should be removed by the City Attorney.

The petition of Thomas Day and others, complaining that the gas works located on lot 25 of block 10, near the corner of Main and Second streets, is in violation of the city ordinance and injurious to the health of citizens residing adjoining, was referred to the City Attorney for his opinion.

The bill of Beckman, Chase & Co. of $18.10 for grading, was referred to the Finance Committee.

The matter of the pavement of New High street, from Franklin street to Marchessault, was postponed for one week.

The pavement of Franklin street was ordered, and the City Engineer was instructed to give notice to the property holders under the improvement act.

The Street Superintendent was ordered to give notice that Sonora street, from Main to New High, would be paved under the Vrooman Act.

Temple street, from Port to Spring, was ordered paved under the Vrooman Act. The Temple street Cable Car Company objected on the ground that it desired to lay double track, and the board decided that material could be shipped here. The board assured the company's representative that a reasonable track would be given to it in its improvement, but the company was at the same time given to understand that the board would brook no unnecessary delay.

The petition of the property owners on Nicholas street, between College Hill and Arnold street, asking for permission to grade the street, was granted.

The petition of H. C. Wiley, asking for permission to extend and alter the sidewalk on Fort, between Fourth and Fifth, was denied.

The matter of granting a franchise to E. F. Spence for a cable track steel rail road, from the intersection of Aliso and Anderson streets, across Macy to Mission Road, and to the south line of Swala street, was postponed for one week.

The petition of property owners on Ocean street, from the west line of Figueroa street to the east line of Buena Vista street, asking for permission to grade, was granted.

The petition of the property owners on Alameda street, between College Hill and Arnold street, asking for permission to grade the street, was granted.

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

The Cheap Lands of the N.C.B. Los Angeles, Jan. 8.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] The opinion prevails very generally among our eastern visitors, and to some extent among our own people, that the price of land in Southern California is excessively high as compared with the price of land in the northern citrus belt. The up-country newspapers are doing their best to spread this impression, with the hope of drawing immigrants to their section with the promise of cheap lands. If any one who has been carried away by the idea that the dwellers of the n.c.b. are yearning to give away their fertile acres for a small consideration to the in-coming home seekers will carefully peruse the real-estate advertisements in the San Francisco Chronicle, he will discover that the well-located improved fruit lands in the n.c.b. are no cheaper than the same kind of lands in Southern California. He will discover, too, that the guileless real-estate dealer of the north can mark up the price of his acres as high, if not higher, than does the conscienceless boomer of the south. Take these culled from advertisements in the San Francisco Chronicle, as samples of great bargains offered by the real-estate agents of the n.c.b.:

"Twenty acres in Yucca valley in fruit and vines, $12,000—$7000 cash, balance on time" only $600 per acre. Los Angeles valley can discount that 50 per cent.

"Fourteen acres 14 miles from the city limits of Oakland, high ground, fine view, delightful climate—$450 per acre." We can offer a finer view, a more delightful climate, and 14 acres of hill land one-half mile from the city limits of Los Angeles for $200 per acre. Los Angeles city has double the population of Oakland. "A $25,000 buy a cheap fruit farm in Santa Clara county, consisting of 66 acres all in fruit and vines."

"Twenty thousand dollars for thirty acres of trees and vines, in Santa Clara county. It is true these farms are located within a radius of fifty to one hundred and fifty miles of San Francisco. It is with these that we should compare the value of our fertile acres and not with wild lands in Shasta or Siskiyou. Los Angeles offers as good a location as any other place in the world, if not a better market than San Francisco for every agricultural product. Here is what an agent calls a 'Napa county bargain.' 'Five acres all in bearing fruit, cottage house, barn, etc., $5000.' One thousand dollars per acre and no boom in Napa. This is the only one that has water for irrigation. These are a few samples of the prices asked for well located, improved and unimproved lands in Central California. They go to show that the quality fruit lands near to good market are higher priced in that part of the State than in Los Angeles. It must be borne in mind that these are not orange lands, but deciduous fruit and vine lands, without water rainfall, and the land seeker can find plenty of cheap land ads. in the San Francisco dailies and in the circulars sent out by n. c. b. real estate dealers.

Land at '$1 an acre and upward' has an attractive sound to the immigrant and the returning back to cheap land draws him northward. The cheap lands of Northern California are mesa or valley lands without water for irrigation, lands on which a grain crop can be grown in a year of abundant rainfall, and in a dry year they are a desert waste.

Any one who has experienced a dry year in California can appreciate the value of land with irrigating facilities. At least one-half of our population has come from Southern California within the past five years. During that time we have had an abundant rainfall every year. These later arrivals do not know the real value of our irrigable lands—lands that will produce a crop every year.

A few dry years, such as we experienced in the sixties and seventies, would convince our new-comers that the price of irrigable lands is not so badly inflated after all. The new-comer has very little idea of what it cost the pioneers to develop the water rights that go with our fruit lands.

Fifty to one hundred and fifty dollars per acre in some cases has been spent to construct ditches, build dams and pipe water on these lands. The immigrant very often considers himself a land owner when he is asked from two to three hundred dollars an acre for first-class fruit land with irrigating facilities. He compares these prices with the price of land in Kansas and Nebraska and grumbles about inflated values. He does not take into consideration that from his cheap Kansas lands he gets a crop about one year in three; that he expends three years' labor to secure one full crop, while our irrigable lands produce a crop every year.

Los Angeles furnishes one of the best markets in the United States for anything a farmer can produce. Considering their freedom from flood or drought, from cyclones or blizzards, the richness of soil and variety of production, our irrigable lands are the cheapest lands in the United States.

The boom has departed this life, and the little white corner stake marks its grave. The speculator or craze is over, and the buyer no longer figures profits from the number of town lots an acre will produce.

Real-estate values are determined now by the return that can be obtained on the investment.

The seeker for cheap land can find plenty in Los Angeles county as cheap as any offered in Northern California. But if he is seeking it for a home, he will discover in time that a 10-acre farm near a good market, near to schools and churches, and in a good neighborhood is a far more profitable possession than a vast domain of the chaparral-covered hills of either Northern or Southern California.

His Company After Money or His Soap. Last night a meeting of the stockholders and directors of the East Side Building and Loan Association was held to look into the accounts of the secretary, E. A. Weed, of the East Side Building and Loan Association, and see what could be done to secure a settlement. The committee appointed for that purpose reported that it had examined the books and found that Weed was $415 short. Weed stated that he had spent the money, and did not have the means on hand to make it good. He had made arrangements to get the money during the day, but had been disappointed. He asked the members to be patient, and that everything would be made all right. No definite action was taken in the matter, and it is probable that he will be given a reasonable time in which to settle before any proceedings are taken. There is considerable feeling against Weed among the stockholders of the association, but all seem disposed to give him a fair show, and something more, before resorting to extreme measures.

SURE-THING MEN.

A Couple of Them Captured by Detective Smith. Last night Detective Will Smith, of the Southern Pacific Railroad, learned that a gang of sure-thing men had attempted to work a passenger who arrived on No. 19, but that they got no money. He concluded to lay for them, and see if they would not try the same thing later on. Sure enough, when No. 30 pulled in, a "fly" young man stepped up and accosted Deputy Sheriff Case of Lancaster, and invited him over to the Union saloon on San Fernando street to take a drink. Case pretended to take the bait, and went with the man, and just at the right time, as the second one of the gang had just in an appearance, Detective Smith stepped to the front, when a young fellow, evidently belonging to the gang, gave him the signal and the "fly" man released the one who gave the signal, and gave up the loaded dice, with which they were trying to rob the man, but he refused. Smith will lay his case before the authorities and ask that his license be revoked. He then called Officer Fitch and took the three men into custody, but after released the one who gave the signal, as he had no proof against him. The officers then started to the station with their prisoners, and on the way one of the men, Fitch, $15 to release them, which Fitch pretended was acceptable and paid the money in his pocket. At the station the men gave the names of Nolan and Sam Gaynor, and they were locked up on suspicion. Fitch turned over the $15, and an additional charge of bribery was entered against Nolan, the man who gave the officer the money. Nolan claims to be an employee in one of the county offices. The man who was released gave the name of Harris, and the man who was released on another one of the gang called at the station, but when he found out how the case stood he made off. Fitch says he proposes to make it warm for any sure-thing man who tries to work the depot, and only a day or two ago kicked a couple of them out of the place.

THE TIMES ANNUAL.

The Times Annual for 1889 is now on sale to the trade and the general public. It may be purchased from the newsboys, at the bookstores, or singly and in quantities at the Times office.

It is a 50-page publication, equivalent in bulk of contents to a 500-page book, check full of valuable and interesting matter. It is specially adapted for sending to friends at a distance, who desire information regarding this section, its compilation having been undertaken with special reference to this purpose. The sending of one copy is better than the writing of one hundred letters. It contains a carefully prepared statement of Southern California's many advantages and few drawbacks, together with a complete exposition of our resources.

Following are the prices of the Annual: Single copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid).....$.25
2 copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid).....$.45
10 copies (in wrappers, postage prepaid).....$ 1.00
25 copies (in bulk).....$ 2.50
50 copies (in bulk).....$ 5.00
100 copies (in bulk).....$ 10.00
1000 copies (in bulk).....$ 80.00

These prices are low, hardly covering the cost of producing the paper.

The plates and matrices for the Annual are all intact, ready for the printing of any number of copies that may be called for. We hope to have drafts made upon you for thousands of these papers.

City subscribers who would like to show their appreciation of the faithful carrier who have served them through rain and shine (principally shine) during the 906 days of the old year, have an opportunity to do so, to a slight extent, by purchasing of these 10, 25 or 50 copies of the Annual—ready today—thus giving them the benefit of the profit on the paper.

The rate of postage on The Times Annual is two cents for each copy. This can be saved by ordering through the office which pays on the matter by the pound.

A Boulevard.

Every city of any pretensions has its drive in which it takes particular pride, and which in a manner gives character to the city. Not to mention the Boulevard of Paris and Rotten Row of London, we may refer with some pride to the Bloomingdale road in New York, to the Lake Shore road in Chicago, to the Euclid avenue in Cleveland, to the Shell road in New Orleans, to San Francisco's Cliff House road, to Oakland's Pueblo avenue, and to the great Arlington avenue at Riverside, a most beautiful drive, of great width and miles in extent. But where is the drive for Los Angeles? To confess the truth, she has none; no drive worth mentioning, or even tolerable. But Los Angeles, from her surroundings, and, with her many natural advantages, should be second to no city in the world of equal size, in this regard. This is a matter that concerns the city more than the county. A good drive, though extending beyond the corporate limits, is a sort of city appendage, and intended more for the accommodation and pleasure of its inhabitants than for the country people. But the county authorities could, with great propriety, cooperate with the city in the work of constructing a good highway from the city to the sea. Enough money is paid into the county's treasury each year to make several such roads. The last year's road money for this county was sufficient to have made a hundred miles of most excellent road, or half a dozen roads to the ocean. A thousand dollars a mile, or $3 a rod, ought to put almost any highway in first-rate condition, and $15,000 out of the $100,000 raised annually in the county could well be expended in connection with the city's efforts to provide a good drive-way to the ocean at the nearest practicable point. But even if the county should neglect or decline to join with the city authorities in so commendable an undertaking, the city could well afford, for its own good name and fame, to prosecute to completion the structure of a first-rate drive from the city to the sea. She cannot afford to lay behind all the rest of the world in a matter of this sort.

Wealth in the Soil.

Los Angeles county has 100,000 acres of unentered Government land. Not all of this, of course, is good for agricultural uses, but much of it may be devoted to that purpose and be made to yield handsome returns. There is also much of this land that is valuable for grazing, and, if this were all valued, Los Angeles county would be the richer every year, for the many thousand dollars which she now sends away annually for her beef and pork might be kept at home, adding its quota to the money in circulation within her limits.

In building up and developing a country, it is always wisdom to remember that "a penny saved is as good as a penny earned." All the money that we can save through home productions, and prevent from being expended in other markets than our own, is of as much benefit to this community as just so much money earned, for we are to that extent the richer for it. It is poor economy for us to go on producing ourselves, if every acre capable of improvement were under cultivation in this county. There would be no county in this State of this whole Union richer in productive wealth than our own. There would be no county among us. There is wealth enough in our soil to support hundreds where one now finds sustenance. Agricultural development, supplemented by numerous manufactures and other industrial enterprises, is all that Southern California requires to make it the richest and most prosperous section of the country. The time has forever passed for great sheep walks and cattle ranges in semi-tropical California. The land so long held worthless for other purposes has at last been discovered to be a very mine of agricultural and horticultural treasures, and when it is all brought under cultivation, plenty and general prosperity will naturally result from it. What a picture of beauty and abundance we should present if all its cultivatable area were as highly improved as is the soil of England. There will men come here by and by wise enough to see that there is no wealth like that hidden in our soil—scientific farmers and horticulturists, who shall make this region bud and blossom as the rose; who shall plant and gather in their harvests and find a richer return than was ever realized from our mines of gold and silver. The future Argonauts of this semi-tropical region will be those who cultivate the soil and gather in their golden harvests of fruits and grains. They may pay their five hundred or ten hundred dollars per acre for the choicest lands, but their return will justify it. They will realize a larger percentage of profits than could be drawn from any other investment. And as all of our large acreage is brought under cultivation there will be in addition to what is already grown many new crops which may be successfully cultivated. There seems hardly a question but what coffee may be profitably grown in favored localities, as also cotton and rice, which have, as yet, been but successful experiments on a small scale. The olive is also destined to become a valuable source of revenue, and there is nothing to hinder the introduction of an extensive silk industry. Those familiar with this industry assert that nowhere in the world is there a country so favorable to the silk worm as Southern California, which is largely exempt from the agencies which tend to its destruction. It is not easy to limit the possibilities of this region—they are almost boundless.

Haytian Horrors.

If the reports that come from Hayti, of the manners and customs of the natives are only half true, it is about time that some civilized power should step in and annex the island, in the interest of humanity. The lower class of Haytians appear to resemble the inhabitants of that group of islands to which a British naval captain was sent, with orders to report on their manners and customs, a duty which he fulfilled in the following laconic language: "Manners they have none, and their customs are beastly."

We published a few days ago, in our telegraph budget, a reference to the state of affairs among the black inhabitants of the island, but the following extract from the Port-au-Prince correspondence of a New York paper discloses the prevailing horrors in a still more graphic manner, and makes it difficult for the reader to realize that the place described is within two days' journey of the United States, and the time the closing years of the nineteenth century.

The lower order of blacks have little idea of relations of father, mother, sister or brother. The slaughter of young children by their mothers that their bodies may be sold as pork or fried down into lard is a common occurrence. The natives are everywhere now and then foreign residents of Port-au-Prince find served up to them on their own tables portions of the bodies of children which have been purchased in the public butcher shops. It is very dangerous to buy cooking lard in Hayti for the reasons above stated, even when the lard is ostensibly of foreign origin. The natives get hold of old cans and fill them with lard of their own make. Only two weeks ago a woman, who was a native, was killed by a foreigner, and the market place at Port-au-Prince for selling as pork the arms and legs of a child. Of course, this killing of children is recognized as murder by the Haytian law and punished as such, but it is certain that the cases which are discovered are but a small proportion of those which happen.

THE SAUTERER.

I saw a young American sovereign seated upon a plover yesterday in the depths of the mud, and I do not believe that a happier subject of a free government could be found. The monarch was dressed in a discount just taken, and the overture to his plow was his chariot. His imaginary horses pranced and galloped and stamped their bits with the fiery spirit of a full-fledged Pegasus. Grand was his vehicle as an old Roman chariot. But no, he was not a monarch. He was a young aristocrat, and when some lady, who was seated beside him, he pushed him scornfully down, saying: "Go away, you black trash. Niggers don't ride with white folks, and the poor little white girl is with me. And his chubby fists in his eyes and his heart heavy with unuttered sorrow.

I was greatly amused the other day at the speech of a dainty little miss, of perhaps 25 years. She was home with her mother when a lady called, bringing with her her small son. As he was climbing the steps to the door, this dot of a girl spied him, and running out, she stretched out her dimpled hand, saying: "Come in, little boy, and see the 'little boy' was at least twice her size, which made her patronizing and helpful air a very entertaining business.

There is at least one tin can and bottle buyer about town whose housekeepers generally would do well to keep an eye upon. He came along not long since with his empty sack upon his back, and, after a long and tedious search, he found a tin can and a bottle. "Not any today, for I have no time to give a hunt for tin cans," he said, and he disappeared down the street corner, he arose and made his way over to the premises where he had just been. He did this with his eyes glistening as his hand came in contact with the tin cans, and it was not long before some fifty bottles, some of them of curious shape, were piled up before him. He was then the place of honor upon the top of the screen door, and for half an hour he was not empty was just so much in his hand. There was room for them in his other hand. And so they were all transferred to it, and the two sacks were tied together and flung in triumph across his shoulder. No foraging army ever made a cleaner sweep in a tin can and bottle territory than this. His welcome would be a warm one.

Construction to be Resumed.

FRESNO, Jan. 12.—John Drake, a contractor of the San Francisco and San Joaquin Valley Railroad, arrived today, and it is announced that construction will be actively resumed on the line.

San Willie's Sentence.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—W. H. M. Stanley, or "Willie," the alleged son of "Big Bertha," the confidence queen, has been sentenced by Judge Murphy to six months' imprisonment in the County Jail, and to pay a fine of $100 for obtaining goods under false pretenses.

day. It is a beautiful drive, and through as lovely a section as can be found in Southern California. How the road wound between nesting hills and then out into the middle of the extensive—far-stretching fields of green, dotted here and there with vineyards and orchards. How in the distance, rising above the green, the peaks of circling hills, rose the vast, towering, snow-clad sierras! How like a white cloud upon the breast of the blue heavens leaved the forest of the ages. How beautiful the quiet homes nestled in old orange groves and bordered with green hedges. It was a picture of peace and beauty, of an outlook of semi-tropical loveliness such as can be found nowhere but in the smiling south of Southern California.

AMUSEMENTS.

SAN DIEGO'S AMATEURS.—As plaintively as the wail of a new-born infant, appeals to the mother's heart, a play written by an amateur and acted by amateurs drew on the reserve fund of mercy and charity of the dramatic critic. And as a rule the amateur cry for leniency is heeded and the performance is given a few words of commendation. But when amateurs place themselves on an equal footing with professional actors, a regular charge of regular admission prices, and then specifically request a full professional criticism, the somewhat singular demand is easy enough to grant.

The Amateur Dramatic Company of San Diego, an amateur organization, has given four representations this week at the Los Angeles Theatre of an amateur four-act comedy, "The Amateur," written by San Diego amateur, George S. Wheatley, who is accredited with having written another comedy-drama, or drama-comedy, some time ago. "The Amateur" is a comedy in the dramatic line is entitled "A Woman Scorned."

Mr. Wheatley has laid himself out to arrange a plot of literary grand larceny. The plot or charge of "A Woman Scorned" is or are taken from at least a dozen sources, and the author has been placed on the professional stage during the past fifteen years. Space prevents a full synopsis of the plot of the play being given, but the following may be briefly summed up as follows:

A bold, bad woman, some twenty-two years previous to the date of the scene, killed her husband, and then, after being placed on the professional stage during the past fifteen years. WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—[By the Associated Press.] The House Committee on Territories devoted the session this morning to hearing arguments upon the claims of Utah for admission. The element seeking admission was represented by Delegate Caine, Franklin Richards and J. W. Wilson, attorney.

In opposition were Judge Baskins, Gov. West, Mr. Ferry and Judge McBride. Richards made a long argument in favor of admission. Mr. Richards opened his argument in an address in which he briefly told of the settlement of Utah, and the hardships and sufferings undergone by the pioneers. He spoke of the growth of the Territory, pointed to the large proportion of people who owned homes composed of other sections of the country, defended the patriotism of the inhabitants, citing the efforts of their ancestors in war. Touching the charges relative to polygamy, he declared that since the passage of the act of 1850 there had been only 10 convictions for new plural marriages. All of the other convictions were in cases where the marriages were contracted before the enactment of the law.

Richards attacked the Governor of the Territory, accusing him of misrepresenting the position and intentions of the Mormon inhabitants of Utah and of perverting the facts generally in the interest of the Gentiles. He characterized as absurd what he called the diabolical stories of Mormon atrocities. He asserted that there is no danger to the United States from the Mormons in the admission of the Territory as a State. Property will be protected under the State Constitution as it has been under the Constitution of the Territory.

He did not mean to censure Gentiles who signed petitions, as many of them had done under coercion, and were honorable citizens. He took up the Governor's report to the Secretary of the Interior, and read affidavits to show that it was inaccurate as to the power of the church in civil affairs. He quoted from the church authorities to show the perfect freedom of members to vote as they pleased, and from the election laws to prove that no one can discover what or whom any elector votes for; also that the elector is entirely free to vote as he pleases, determined by the giver, and that the whole Mormon theory is based on free agency, and in practice everything is done by consent, making the Mormon church the most democratic on earth. He deprecated the Governor's presence here for the purpose of trying to establish the absolutism in Utah, by which, with the legislative commission, he would have the power to appoint all local officers.

In conclusion, he set forth in detail the claims of the Territory to admission, appealed to the committee in the name of patriotism, justice and honor not to be influenced by the malicious and untrue statements to longer keep her loyal people in political servitude.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON (D. C.), Jan. 12.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—In the Senate Mr. Morgan sent to the Clerk's desk an amendment which he proposed to offer to the Tariff Bill as the proper time to read: "All laws and parts of laws which exempt from payment of duties any articles of commerce upon which duties are imposed in this act when in transit through the United States to or from the Dominion of Canada or any province thereof are hereby declared inoperative."

Mr. Allison moved to amend paragraph 48 of the wool wood pulp by making it read "mechanically ground wood pulp, 25.50 per ton; dry weight; chemical wood pulp, 25.50 per ton; bleached, 27.50 per ton. Agreed to."

Mr. Gray called attention to the section which permits the importation in bond free of duty of lumber, timber and other materials for the construction and equipment of vessels built in the United States for foreign account ownership, or for the employment of foreign labor, and proposed an amendment so as to include plates, deck beams, forgings, composition metal and all structural iron and steel, including rivets and parts of machinery. The existing law, he said, as well as the section named, were intended to encourage ship-building in the United States, and he proposed to amend the law so that it would encourage the building of iron and steel vessels.

Mr. Sherman objected to including machinery in the list of articles to be imported free of duty, as this would interfere with American machine shops.

After a short debate, and without disposition of Mr. Gray's amendment, the Senate proceeded to executive business and soon adjourned.

House.—In the House, the journal having been read, the Speaker presented various executive documents for reference, and appointed conferences on the Nicaragua Canal Bill, and the Hawaiian Islands Bill.

Diplomats Speculating on the Results of the Bismarck Mission—Seville's Successor to be Chosen—Where Harrison Is Located—Other Foreign News.

By Telegram to the Times.

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—(Copyright, 1899, by the New York Associated Press.) Prince Bismarck will address the Reichstag on Tuesday in the debate on the foreign estimates. The explanation of the Chancellor's anxiety to return to Berlin must be sought in the outcome of the Morier and Gefken affairs, though no attention should be paid to the rumors of the foreign press that his resignation is imminent. The attacks upon Morier have by no means ceased, and the apparently endless variations thereon are becoming wearisome and even disgusting to an impartial public. Kölnische Zeitung, returning to the charge today seems to throw suspicion upon Morier's political character. It says: "There exists in England a powerful party which advocates an Anglo-Russian understanding and Morier, who was formerly held in esteem by Queen Victoria and the widow of Emperor Frederick, forfeited favor by the decided opposition he offered to Bismarckism in the interests of this party."

The Norddeutsche Zeitung, which has hitherto to a great extent held aloof from the dispute, tonight inserts its end of the wedge. With the view of showing to what extent the intentions of the Emperor Frederick differed from the tendency of the Liberal party, it publishes an autograph letter from Emperor Frederick to Prince Bismarck on the occasion of the jubilee in honor of the Chancellor's entry into the army. The letter is as follows: "I do not wish today to enter upon a long discussion of the statesmanlike merits which have bound up your name forever with our history. But one thing I must point out, namely, that whenever there was a question of assuring the well being of the army and perfecting its defensive power and fighting capacity, you never failed to take up the struggle and carry it through to the end. The army, with the commander-in-chief at its head, therefore, thanks you for the blessings you have conferred upon it, which it will never forget."

A Sydney letter on the subject of the Bismarck mission, which appears in the Frankfurt Zeitung, declares that the truth of the report that the rebellion was instigated by Americans is frankly acknowledged by all English correspondents in Samoa, all of whom deeply regret the action taken by the Emperor. But one thing is pointed out, namely, that whenever there was a question of assuring the well being of the army and perfecting its defensive power and fighting capacity, you never failed to take up the struggle and carry it through to the end. The army, with the commander-in-chief at its head, therefore, thanks you for the blessings you have conferred upon it, which it will never forget."

TALK OF THE TOWN. The Reichstag today, after a stormy debate, confirmed the election of Herr Goetz, National Liberal, as member for Leipzig. The Socialists accused the Government of having secured his election by a bribe. The Landtag will be opened on Monday. The Emperor has ordered that the best boys and girls in the Berlin schools, both high and low, shall be treated on the evening of the 30th inst. to a performance at the opera-house of Wilhelmstrasse's patriotic play, Die Quislings. The two oldest sons of the Emperor will be present at the performance. The Official Gazette announces the betrothal of Princess Louise, sister of the Emperor, to Prince Leopold of Prussia. The officer of the French Legation Reserve Corps, named Drevius, who was recently arrested at Strasbourg without a passport, and having in his possession sketches of the fortifications, will be prosecuted for high treason.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE NOT POPULAR on the Isthmus. PANAMA, Jan. 12.—(By Cable and Associated Press.) Encouraging telegrams from private sources in Panama tend to keep up the spirits of all through this trying period of anxiety for the Isthmus. Uneasiness in the money market has somewhat subsided, but exchange rates keep still at an abnormal figure, varying between 55 per cent. and 64 per cent.

The resolutions recently presented to the United States Senate with reference to European intervention in American matters are not regarded with favor either in this country or other Spanish-American republics. Newspapers are coming in now with comments criticizing the resolutions. The general tendency of opinion as thus reflected in the press is that these republics effected their own freedom from European dominion and are absolutely free and sovereign states, any such action on the part of the United States as that suggested in the resolutions would amount to an infringement of their national rights. In this country more particularly, as it is natural under the circumstances, public opinion runs high on the subject. In the contract between this Government and the canal company there is a clause that particularly sets forth that no transfer whatever of rights and privileges can take place and certainly that no governments intervention could possibly be tolerated on the part of France. In the event, therefore, of any such occurrence, and that which has been suggested by the French Government, the Colombian Government would alone have the right of protesting in the first instance, and that only in response to a direct appeal from her could any other country assume the right of intervention.

Col. J. M. C. Marble, late of Ohio, is the president of the company. Col. Marble, who is named in the above, was recently the guest of the city of Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw road, and his success in building that road up from one of 80 miles to a first-class property of 350 miles is generally known. HOW MEN DIE. If we know all the methods of approach adopted by an enemy we are the better enabled to ward off the danger and postpone the moment when surrender becomes inevitable. In many instances the inherent strength of the body suffices to enable it to oppose the tendency toward death. Many, however, have lost their forces to such an extent that there is little or no help. In other cases a little aid to the weakened will make all the difference between sudden death and many years of useful life. Upon the first symptoms of a cough, cold or any trouble of the throat or lungs, give that old and well-known remedy—Boehr's German Syrup a careful trial. It will prove what thousands say of it to be, the "benefactor of any home."

California Waukesha! PURE WATER! The CORONADO BEACH COMPANY. Made a very valuable and important addition to the water supply of the City of Los Angeles, San Diego County. They came upon a series of springs, the water of which has similar properties to the celebrated WAUKESHA WATER.

Clear, sparkling, agreeable to the eye and refreshing to the taste; one spring already yields 5,000,000 gallons per day, and other springs can, by development, be made to yield equal quantities. This water has been piped to South San Diego, Coronado Heights, and Coronado Beach, and used with the most satisfaction and favorable results.

AN ANALYSIS. Made of this water by the celebrated chemist, C. Gilbert Wheeler of Chicago, shows that it is exceptionally pure, and is possessed of highly mineral qualities, which act as directly and favorably on all kidney troubles.

THE WAUKESHA WATER. The above is fully borne out by the result of its use for several months among the guests of the Hotel del Coronado. It is a most refreshing and healthy beverage, and is especially favorable on all kidney troubles.

Real Estate. SIMI RANCHO! Cheap Lands. Good Lands. Prices and Terms to Encourage Settlers.

So much has been said and written about the high prices for ordinary farming and fruit land in Southern California that many Eastern people think that no good land can be had at less than $500 per acre in an good locality. But if you call at the headquarters of the Simi Rancho, you will find that you can buy well watered stock ranges at $10 to $15 per acre, and every one of these ranges contains more or less good farming land. You can buy first-class valley lands at $30 to $45 per acre, and small tracts of 20 or 40 acres, for fruit farms, at about the same price. Colonies who want from 1000 to 5000 acres can buy large tracts of land, suitable for dividing among their members, at $25 to $40 per acre. This company cares nothing for boom and sink in inflated prices for their lands. We own nearly 100,000 acres, and have perfectly undisturbed title. The object is to furnish good lands, to actual settlers, at prices within reach of any who can buy land at all, and to furnish the same to the same end. We do not claim to have the best land in the State, and at present are not directly connected with any other land company. But we do claim to offer better land and more advantages and on easier terms of payment than any other company. We have brought to our notice. It will cost you nothing but a postal card to get detailed information about these lands. If you want a farm or a stock range write or call at 19 West First street, Los Angeles, and ask about the Simi ranch.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Whittier, Jan. 10.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The holiday festivities are over, and our village has settled down to business that betokens prosperity.

Gardening is flourishing, building is progressing, visitors are coming, citizens are rejoicing and a grand opening up of spring activity seems on the tapis.

Merchants proclaim an increase in business. Our lumber dealers report more orders in than for the past six months.

The ticket agent reports an increase of railroad travel. Hotels are full to overflowing.

Mr. C. W. Harvey has commodiously and artistically furnished the beautifully located Greenleaf, and will carry next week—throw it open to the many guests in waiting, and to all who are desirous of a delightful stopping place.

Whittier has an additional attraction in the shape of a sulphur well, discovered while boring for oil in well No. 3. The water is equal if not superior to that of the famous Fulton Wells.

Our schoolhouse bonds sold at a premium, and the building will be put under way next week.

School reopened with the usual spirit, and interest in the new building is anxiously waited for.

Dame Rumor tells us the college building will soon follow the public school building.

Mr. Ricker and family, at present stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Hervey Lindley, number among the solid citizens of Whittier.

Mr. Jordan and family have arrived and taken possession of the Short-street Briggs house. They expect this to be their future home.

Mr. Navier has purchased the Pickering residence, on Painter avenue, and will take possession on the 1st of February.

Miss Gardner of St. Paul, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mason, is most enthusiastic in her praise of this beautiful climate.

The cannery is making preparations to open early in the season, and citizens who have any spare ground are turning their attention to the ever profitable tomato crop.

A new coat of paint improves the old school building immensely.

A CALIFORNIA SENSATION.

It is reported that the sales of the California remedy, Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, have grown within a few months till they are now really sensational. The way the fame of this production has spread is simply marvelous.

Six months ago it was unknown. To-day it is all over the country. It is authoritatively stated that they have been actually giving it away in San Francisco to people afflicted with dyspepsia, sick headaches, indigestion and liver troubles, not to be paid for unless cured.

Such practical tests are so marvellously convincing as to be almost sensational. It is stated that two of the active principles of the new remedy belong to the vegetable kingdom of California and are so well known to all under common names that it would surprise us if it told them that we are surprised at anything Californian, and this recent discovery of the new medicinal virtues of its vegetable kingdom is but another instance of the astonishing possibilities of a soil and climate like ours.
